

A narrow alleyway between brick townhouses, lined with trees and flowering plants, creating a peaceful and community-oriented atmosphere.

PENN'S VILLAGE

Neighbors helping neighbors thrive, connect & engage

HELPING NEIGHBORS
ENJOY INDEPENDENCE & STAY CONNECTED IN THE NEIGHBORHOODS THEY KNOW & LOVE

Keep Loyal Customers in Your Community

Penn's Village, a non-profit, central Philadelphia volunteer organization helps local senior residents live full lives and remain actively engaged in our community.

Penn's Village is needed because:

In 2030

20% of the U.S. population will be over 65

“The kids” can’t do it all

1,000

Volunteer provided services in 2017
including transportation,
errands, technology help

We make a significant contribution to the well-being of the community

320

Visits from a friendly companion

275

Assists in navigating the health care system

Penn's Village needs the support of businesses to reach more of our neighbors and continue to provide the services, social and educational opportunities that keep older adults connected and vital.

“She boosted my feeling of confidence and security in my solo domestic life, and [her] cheerful, energetic, compassionate manner lifted my spirits.”

- Villager about a volunteer

“What makes our relationship click is our common frame of reference: both retired educated professionals with long careers. I cherish this mutually beneficial relationship.”

- Volunteer who visits a Villager with cognitive impairment

“Visits from the volunteer are a gift – I’m grateful that Penn’s Village brought us together.”

- Villager

“He understood what I wanted on my iPhone and iPad. He spent the entire afternoon here and didn’t leave until I had checked off all the items on my list.”

- Villager about a tech volunteer

“Thank you for all your top-notch programs.” - Villager

“Volunteering as a Health Pal has been a rich and rewarding experience and a valuable partnership. Recently, the partnership role was reversed when the Villager offered to go with me to a medical procedure. Teamwork at its best!”
